Bomb Rips U.S. Capitol; Clues Sought

WASHINGTON (AP) — An early morning bomb blast, reportedly linked to a protest against the U.S.-supported invasion of Laos, ripped up an interior section of the Senate wing of the Capitol today causing extensive damage but no injuries.

"This is apparently a political bombing," said Senate Republican Leader Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania. He said the Senate sergeant at arms, Robert G.

Dumphy, told him a letter had been found linked to the bombing and referring to U.S. operations in Laos.

Scott said a male caller who contacted the Capitol switchboard to give advance warning of the blast also referred to the Laotian invasion.

Capitol police and FBI spokesmen, however, would neither confirm nor deny the link to anti-war protesters.

Meanwhile, President Nixon issued a statement through White House spokesman Ronald L. Ziegler calling the bombing "a shocking act of violence that will outrage all Americans."

The blast pulverized a men's room and damaged other rooms, but did not touch the Senate chamber itself.

Perhaps coincidentally, it came 17 years to the day after Puerto Rican nationalists shot and wounded five congressmen from the visitors' gallery of the House of Representatives. It also caused the most extensive damage to the building since the British set it afire in 1814.

Scott said the effect of the bombing will be unfortunate, both in this country and internationally.

"It's likely to be exaggerated," he said. "They won't realize that it's one bomb in one washroom."

Scott also took the occasion to criticize federal judges in the District of Columbia, accusing them of too much leniency.

He said even if the person who placed the bomb is arrested "my guess would be they'd never go to jail, not with the type of appellate court we have in the District of Columbia."

Police, Army and FBI investigators were seeking clues to the identity of the male caller who warned the Capitol switchboard: "The Capitol building will blow up in 30 minutes."

Half an hour later, at 1:32 a.m. EST the bomb exploded. Capitol Police Chief James Powell said one of his officers was within 200 feet of the blast but escaped injury despite windows breaking "right over his head."

The blast gutted a men's room directly across from the Old Senate Chamber, blasted doors off their hinges in several surrounding rooms, and blew out windows all the way out to the Senate's front door—perhaps 125 feet.

Bricks, doors, lighting and other fixtures were piled high in a corridor when newsmen were allowed a brief inspection about six hours after the blast.

The men's room—open to the public but generally only known about by people working in the area—was a grey hulk filled with tiny pieces of plumbing fixtures and grey plaster rubble. It was almost impossible to tell it had been a rest room.

A red brick wall on one side of the men's room was badly cracked and bulging out into the corridor. Plaster molding on the

Annual Easter Seal Campaign Gets Under Way

EASTER SEAL CHILD — Pickaway County's Easter Seal Child, Brooke Elaine Reed, met Marlin Perkins, narrator and creator of the NBC series, "Wild Kingdom", Sunday at the annual Easter Seal Society Campaign Kick-Off meeting in Columbus. Also present at the meeting was Mrs. Elliott Mason, Pickaway County chapter president.

Twenty-one volunteers and members of the Pickaway County Easter Seal Society were among the more than 400 persons attending the 1970 Ohio

Easter Seal Society Campaign Kick-Off meeting in Columbus Sunday.

The event is an annual program planned by the State Society in order to offer the local volunteers the opportunity to meet officials and celebrity guests who are participating in the Ohio Easter Seal Campaign which opens today across the county and will continue through April 11.

Danny Scholl of Cincinnati, 1971 Ohio Easter Seal Chairman and 1970 recipient of the President's trophy from the President's Committee for the Employment of the Handicapped, delivered the keynote address. Scholl, injured initially during service in the South Pacific, has encountered several strokes requiring extensive surgery, rehabilitation and treatment in the past decade. He related to the group the sincere appreciation of the medical teams which have virtually saved his life many times.

After his most recent stroke several years ago, doctors believed he would never walk or talk again. His determination and faith sustained him through many dark days. Scholl stated, "God has blessed me with many friends who were there when I needed them most." He was a former Broadway and television performer.

HE has not only recovered the ability to walk with a leg brace and a cane, but has completely recovered his speaking voice. He closed the program by singing, "No Man is an Island" which he has

British Soldier Burned To Death; Snipers Active

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — A British soldier was burned to death early today when ambushers in the Roman Catholic Bogside district of Londonderry threw 10 fire bombs at his patrolling landrover.

In Belfast, a British army bullet in the stomach sent a 16-year-old to a hospital as troops exchanged shots with snipers of the Irish Republican Army, and explosions reverberated through the Catholic quarter. Isolated explosions were set off elsewhere in the British province.

An army spokesman said about 20 youths ambushed a three-man military police patrol in Londonderry.

The driver was thrown clear as the vehicle spun into a wall. The attackers stoned him, but Bogside residents dashed from their homes to drag the other two men from the back of the burning vehicle. One died before reaching a hospital; the other was not injured seriously.

The driver caught one attacker and handed him over to police, the Army said.

"It seems as though the attack was organized," the spokesman said. "Everything happened together. There were 10 petrol bombs in the air at once." Londonderry was calm before and after the ambush.

Until last month, the British force that came to Northern Ireland in August 1969 to put down Protestant-Catholic rioting had not lost a man. But today's victim was the third in a month and the third peacekeeper killed during a violent weekend. IRA machine-gun fire brought down six unarmed policemen Saturday morning, and two died from their wounds.

Their deaths prompted pressure on Prime Minister James Callaghan to arm the police. He called his police-army security committee into session Sunday, but the committee decided to leave them unarmed.

Snow, Rain Hit Nation

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Snow, rain or fog hampered travelers today over much of the nation as a snowstorm erupted in the lower Midwest and rain stretched from Alabama to northern Florida and South Carolina.

Heavy snow fell in Kansas, southern Nebraska and Missouri with four inches reported at Hays and Salina, Kan. Travelers' warnings were posted for most of the three-state area and stockmen's warnings were issued in western Kansas.

Dense fog and rain slowed driving in the country's southeastern corner and travelers' warnings were issued for northern Florida, Alabama and South Carolina.

Light snow also fell in New England and in the Northern Plains as well as the western intermountain region.

Debbie Young Seeks National Pork Crown

Debbie Young, 19, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Young, Route 1, will be one of 14 candidates vying for the coveted title of National Pork Queen Wednesday in Des Moines, Iowa.

The crowning of the National Pork queen will highlight the second annual American Pork Congress being held Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at Des Moines.

The honor carries with it a $2,000 college scholarship and the obligation to help promote pork consumption during the coming year.

Debbie has already won the Pickaway County, district and state titles and will represent Ohio in the national event. She is a graduate of Logan Elm High School.

The Congress is sponsored by the National Pork Producers Council and affiliated state groups, and the queen contest is conducted by the Porkettes, women's auxiliary. The $2,000 queen's scholarship is provided by American Cyanamid Company, Princeton, N.J.

National queen candidates will be interviewed and will present their pork promotion talks before the judging committee Wednesday afternoon at the Savory Hotel. Brown Would End Special Elections

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A proposal to end special elections in Ohio is expected to be proposed this week to the 109th General Assembly by Secretary of State Ted W. Brown.

Brown said limiting the number of elections in a year would encourage sponsors to prepare their cases more thoroughly and would reduce costs.

The measure would provide for two elections—one primary and one general — each year. Each political subdivision would be required to time its elections to coincide with the two elections.

Gilligan To Outline Program In Ohio Assembly Speech

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. John J. Gilligan will present in general terms his program for the next four years when he addresses a joint session of the General Assembly tonight.

Proposals are expected to include a personal income tax for education as well as a tax on corporate income. Both were recommended by his Citizens Task Force on Tax Reform.

The giant AFL-CIO and the United Auto Workers Union are on record against a personal income tax without widespread closing of present tax loopholes.

The labor unions favor a tax on corporation income. Gilligan, during his campaign for governor, said he favored the corporate tax and a personal tax only if more money was needed. He has since also advocated the personal tax.

The AFL-CIO publication, News and Views has charged the task force with failing to recommend "just and equitable" taxes. "It promised 'a real donnybrook in the fight for tax reform.'"

Both houses of the legislature will convene at 7:30 p.m. and then meet in a joint session at 8 to hear Gilligan's speech. Aides have said he will talk only in a general nature about his programs and taxes and will not get specific until he presents his budget in a similar appearance March 15.

Two of the more interested observers will be House Speaker Charles F. Kurfess, R-4 Perryburg, and Senate Majority Leader Theodore M. Gray, R-3 Piqua.

Both houses of the Legislature are Republican-controlled and almost any of Gilligan's programs that get out of committee and through the 109th General Assembly must have their approval.

Kurfess has said he is interested only in what kind of taxes Gilligan will personally recommend. He said he was "tired" of discussing recommendations of the 34-member task force.

"Every person has his own ideas about what constitutes tax reform," Gray said. "These various tax proposals have been rehearsed many sessions by the Legislature."

Both Kurfess and the AFL-CIO have gone on record against a temporary boost in the sales-excite taxes. Gilligan recently said it may be needed to keep some school districts next September until money from a tax reform measure is available.

"We don't agree," the labor organization said. "Temporary sales taxes hikes have a way of becoming permanent. Ohio needs tax reform . . . now."

Plans Completed For DSA Banquet

All details for the annual Circleville Jaycees Distinguished Service Awards Banquet scheduled 7 p.m. today at the 4-H and Grange Building have been completed.

Bob Braun, WLW-TV personality, will be the principal speaker at the event. The community's outstanding young man of 1970 will be announced at the banquet and the Jaycees' senior citizens award will be presented.

Jaycees will also honor the outstanding young farmer, Donald Davis of Wayne Twp., and the outstanding young educator, David Beavers of Logan Elm High School.

William Bills, winner of the OYM award last year, will present the special honors to his successor. Other winners a year ago were Hal Richard, outstanding young farmer; Paul Dunkle, outstanding young teacher; Dr. Lloyd W. Sprouse and Frank Fischer, senior citizens.

Archie Ward, general chairman of the banquet this year, reported today that a limited number of tickets will be available at the door tonight.

Woman Solon Would End Draft Entirely

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Bela Abug, describing compulsory military service as slavery, called today for an end to the draft and abolition of the Selective Service System.

"I am unalterably opposed to military conscription and believe it should be dismantled," the New York Democrat said. "Changes in a system of involuntary servitude can never correct the basic injustices perpetrated by a form of slavery."

She added that minorities, especially Puerto Ricans, "suffer most from the injustices of conscription."

Her remarks were prepared for delivery before the House Armed Services Committee, which resumed hearings today on the Nixon administration's proposal to extend the draft law for two years beyond its June 30 expiration date.

President Nixon also has called for pay hikes for low grade servicemen to attract volunteers and a reduction of draft calls to zero by July, 1973.

Mrs. Abug, publicly opposed to the war in Indochina, has introduced in the House a resolution to abolish the Selective Service System by Dec. 31, 1971.

"The Vietnam war might have been avoided had Congress been required to approve a reinvestment of the draft for the specific purpose of furnishing fighting men for Vietnam," she said.

Stay On Jobs As Contract Talks Continue

WASHINGTON (AP) — Progress in negotiations to avert a threatened railroad strike was reported at midday today, many hours after the threatened walk-out of United Transportation Union members across the country.

The men stayed at their jobs and the trains were running.

Voluntary contract talks with the National Railway Labor Conference recessed in the small hours this morning and were set to resume this afternoon at the Labor Department.

The UTU claims to be the largest union representing rail workers. It says 190,000 of a total membership of 262,000 are employed in operating crafts on U.S. and Canadian railroads. Official sources have used smaller figures, however.

Emergency legislation passed by Congress three months ago to halt a brief nationwide strike ran out at midnight, Sunday. But the union, as predicted by labor officials, continued voluntary talks with the National Railway Labor Conference.

Work rules, governing who handles individual jobs, and how they are carried out, were the last major stumbling block, said Assistant Secretary of Labor W. J. Usery. Usery and George Ives, a member of the National Mediation and Conciliation Service, have been guiding the talks through final stages.

Labor Secretary James D. Hodgson said Sunday he felt the negotiations would continue past the possible walkout time. "There will be no nationwide railroad strike tonight," he said.

The UTU is the last holdout of four rail unions that struck briefly in early December. The Brotherhood of Railway and Airline Clerks, Brotherhood of

Man To Appear On Charge He Threatened Nixon

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A 19-year-old Vietnam veteran from Columbus will appear before U.S. Commissioner Alphonse Cincione Thursday for allegedly threatening the life of President Nixon.

Glenn Scott South is being held under a $50,000 bond in Franklin County jail. He is charged with mailing a letter threatening the life of the President.

U.S. Secret Service agents say the alleged threat was contained in a letter South sent to a friend in Ohio. The agents identified South as a Vietnam veteran and a deserter from the 82nd Airborne Division.

At a hearing Saturday before Cincione, he said, "I don't consider myself a deserter. I am a political refugee."

The maximum penalty for the charge is five years in prison and a $1,000 fine.

40 Are Arrested In Cockfight Raid

GEORGETOWN, Ohio (AP) — About 40 cockfight enthusiasts will appear this evening in Brown County Court following their arrest by sheriff's deputies Saturday night in a barn on the farm of Orle Wilder, near Sardinia.

Sheriff William Utter said he confiscated 30 fighting birds at the site. Most of those arrested could not make $100 bond so they were released on their own promise to report to court. The jail could not handle that many prisoners, Sheriff Utter said.

February Precipitation Above Normal

February was a wet month in Circleville. Rainfall recorded during the 28 days totaled 3.60 inches, 1.05 inches above normal precipitation.

No new records were established but extremes for the month were approached in both temperature and precipitation. A balmy 69 degrees was recorded Feb. 22 for the temperature high. One degree below zero was the month's low on Feb. 1.

Two days of note were Feb. 8 when 8-10 inches of snow in blizzard proportions fell in the area, drifting to from four to six feet in rural areas. On the 21st, a near-record 1.58 inches of rain fell in a 24-hour period. The Scioto River at Circleville crested at 17.6, overflowing its banks and inundating surrounding low areas.

The river reading gauge Monday reported out of order, flooded no doubt. The local weather observer did however note the Scioto is continuing to fall from Saturday's level, 12.50.

If local residents base the new month's climatic conditions on the adage, "In like a lion, out like a lamb" there is a choice. The lamb-like sunny, mild morning is expected to alter appearance. A lion is expected to register objection before the day's end. Cloudy skies, a drop in temperature and snow is forecast.

Tobacco Industry Doing OK

DURHAM, N.C. (AP) — Cigarette manufacturers say they're doing alright despite antismoking campaigns and a government ban on television and radio advertising.

In 1970 the number of cigarettes produced in the United States increased 17.4 billion to 575 billion.

Even Liggett & Myers, Inc., which has reported a slight decline in cigarette sales for several years, posted a increase in operating income from cigarettes last year.

John Palmer of Washington, president of Tobacco Associates, a flue-cured tobacco trade organization, noted that last year's increase in production was a reversal of the recent trend. For instance, he said, in 1969 fewer cigarettes were produced than in 1968.

Also, the figure for cigarette exports jumped last year from 25 billion to 29 billion.

Most cigarette manufacturers don't release exact sales figures, but surveys by Marketing Communications, Forbes and Barron's indicate gains in cigarette sales last year of from one to three per cent.

The surveys said profits increased even more because of higher prices.

Palmer predicted the federal ban on television and radio cigarette advertising, which went into effect the first of this year, would have little influence on cigarette consumption.

Hoover Blasted In 'FBI Letter'

The letter on FBI stationery was released Sunday by the South Dakota Democrat. It accuses FBI Director J. It also says Hoover deserves credit for building up the FBI but warns he now is "tearing down that which he has built up, and at a much faster rate . . ."

Voluntary contract talks with the National Railway Labor Conference recessed in the small hours this morning and were set to resume this afternoon at the Labor Department.

The UTU claims to be the largest union representing rail workers. It says 190,000 of a total membership of 262,000 are employed in operating crafts on U.S. and Canadian railroads. Official sources have used smaller figures, however.

Emergency legislation passed by Congress three months ago to halt a brief nationwide strike ran out at midnight, Sunday. But the union, as predicted by labor officials, continued voluntary talks with the National Railway Labor Conference.

Work rules, governing who handles individual jobs, and how they are carried out, were the last major stumbling block, said Assistant Secretary of Labor W. J. Usery. Usery and George Ives, a member of the National Mediation and Conciliation Service, have been guiding the talks through final stages.

Labor Secretary James D. Hodgson said Sunday he felt the negotiations would continue past the possible walkout time. "There will be no nationwide railroad strike tonight," he said.

The UTU is the last holdout of four rail unions that struck briefly in early December. The Brotherhood of Railway and Airline Clerks, Brotherhood of

Man To Appear On Charge He Threatened Nixon

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A 19-year-old Vietnam veteran from Columbus will appear before U.S. Commissioner Alphonse Cincione Thursday for allegedly threatening the life of President Nixon.

Glenn Scott South is being held under a $50,000 bond in Franklin County jail. He is charged with mailing a letter threatening the life of the President.

U.S. Secret Service agents say the alleged threat was contained in a letter South sent to a friend in Ohio. The agents identified South as a Vietnam veteran and a deserter from the 82nd Airborne Division.

At a hearing Saturday before Cincione, he said, "I don't consider myself a deserter. I am a political refugee."

The maximum penalty for the charge is five years in prison and a $1,000 fine.

40 Are Arrested In Cockfight Raid

GEORGETOWN, Ohio (AP) — About 40 cockfight enthusiasts will appear this evening in Brown County Court following their arrest by sheriff's deputies Saturday night in a barn on the farm of Orle Wilder, near Sardinia.

Sheriff William Utter said he confiscated 30 fighting birds at the site. Most of those arrested could not make $100 bond so they were released on their own promise to report to court. The jail could not handle that many prisoners, Sheriff Utter said.

February Precipitation Above Normal

February was a wet month in Circleville. Rainfall recorded during the 28 days totaled 3.60 inches, 1.05 inches above normal precipitation.

No new records were established but extremes for the month were approached in both temperature and precipitation. A balmy 69 degrees was recorded Feb. 22 for the temperature high. One degree below zero was the month's low on Feb. 1.

Two days of note were Feb. 8 when 8-10 inches of snow in blizzard proportions fell in the area, drifting to from four to six feet in rural areas. On the 21st, a near-record 1.58 inches of rain fell in a 24-hour period. The Scioto River at Circleville crested at 17.6, overflowing its banks and inundating surrounding low areas.

The river reading gauge Monday reported out of order, flooded no doubt. The local weather observer did however note the Scioto is continuing to fall from Saturday's level, 12.50.

If local residents base the new month's climatic conditions on the adage, "In like a lion, out like a lamb" there is a choice. The lamb-like sunny, mild morning is expected to alter appearance. A lion is expected to register objection before the day's end. Cloudy skies, a drop in temperature and snow is forecast.

Door To Mideast Peace Closed, Egyptians Claim

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Egypt says Israel's refusal to give up all occupied Arab territories closes the door to a peaceful settlement in the Middle East. But Egyptian President Anwar Sadat says his government will keep trying.

The Israeli Cabinet met Sunday and was reported studying several proposals for partial withdrawal from the territory seized in the 1967 war, but the cabinet announced last week that Israel would never return to the prewar borders.

The Israeli position "closes the doors to all peaceful settlements because the liberation of occupied areas is for Egypt something beyond any discussion or bargaining," said an Egyptian government statement distributed by the Middle East News Agency.

Sadat, speaking in Cairo to the Palestine National Council of guerrilla leaders, said Egypt still intends to seek a negotiated peace with Israel but not at the expense of the Palestinians.

He told the council that Egypt had rejected a separate peace with Israel.

"There is no such thing as an Egyptian solution or a Palestinian, Jordanian or Syrian solution," he said. "There is only an Arab solution."

In effect replying to guerrilla leaders who oppose any negotiations with Israel, Sadat said Egypt's participation in the indirect peace talks with U.N. envoy Gunnar Jarring as go-between has "unmasked the enemy's expansionist ambitions" and put Israel on the diplomatic defensive for the first time in years.

He told the commando chiefs that if this tack failed, Egypt still would have made the necessary military preparations.

The Soviet Union, meanwhile, urged that a meeting of the Big Four U.N. delegates on the Middle East situation be moved up from Thursday to today, U.N. sources said Britain and France had agreed to the change, but the United States referred the request to Washington.

The Soviet Union wanted the meeting to discuss Israel's reply to Egypt's offer last week to sign a peace agreement. Israel said it was ready to enter into detailed negotiations with Egypt on boundaries and other elements of a peace treaty. But it rejected Egypt's demand that it withdraw from all occupied Arab territories.

corridor wall was blown away and littered the floor along with glass from broken windows. Gold lace curtains were pushed out against and sometimes through broken windows all the way down to the ornately painted committee and reception rooms on the north end of the Senate Chamber. The front door, another 50 feet away, was broken.

The Senate barber shop, across a small hallway from the men's room, was badly littered and mirrors and windows were shattered but the barber chairs and other heavy equipment were not mangled or moved.

The outside of the historic Old Senate Chamber, which was used from 1800 to 1908 and was the scene of President John Adams inauguration, Nov. 22, 1800, was not damaged. The door was closed and newsmen did not look inside.

Capitol police said there had been six bomb threats since Christmas. Chief Powell said routine procedures were used between 1 a.m. and 1:32 a.m. when the blast occurred.

Sen. George Aiken, R-Vt., returned from viewing the damage and said he believes the warning phone call and its early-morning timing bear the "earmarks of organization."

Engineers in the office of the architect of the Capitol looked for possible structural injury to the historic and ancient west front.

Thomas F. Clancy, supervising engineer of the Capitol, said through a spokesman that it was too early to determine the full extent of the damage.

Windows were blasted out directly above the huge wooden beams that were braced against the West front several years ago, but there were no visible cracks or any other damage in the wall itself.

There were cracks, however, in the interior section of another wall some distance from the west front close to the blast.

The Senate Chamber itself, in the new section of the building, was not damaged.

Washington, D.C. Police, FBI and Army bomb experts from nearby Ft. McNair searched the building. Washington police used German shepherd dogs, and combed other parts of the Capitol looking for any other bombs.

The Capitol had closed to the public at 5 p.m. EST Sunday. Officials said all custodial personnel had left the building some hours before the explosions. Only members of the Capitol police force were inside at the time.

Figures Down, Monies Up In Recordings

Recordings processed during the month of February in the office of County Recorder Hazel M. Yeatts totaled 192, down from the previous month and down from Feb., 1970. Although total figures were lower in comparison, the amount of money involved in the 54 real estate mortgage cancellations was a record $828,493.22.

Over $1 million was again involved in the mortgages. The total figure was $1,120,788.23 for 59 mortgages, not a high.

Other recordings contained in the report concerned 83 deeds, 50 miscellaneous recordings, and filing and processing of 177 financing statements.

Man Fined, Jailed For Resisting Arrest

William L. Graham, Laurelville, was fined a total of $160 and costs and sentenced to six months in the Pickaway County Jail on charges of resisting arrest, assaulting a police officer and intoxication. Municipal Court Judge Sterling Lamb levied the fine and sentence when Graham pleaded guilty to the charges Friday.

Ohio Weekend Traffic Toll Edges Higher; 14 Are Killed

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Boosted by a triple-fatality accident east of Bowling Green and a double-death accident in downtown Toledo, Ohio's weekend traffic death count edged up to 14 over the past weekend just ended.

That was the highest figure for the past three weekends, following two weekends which tied for the year's low with nine deaths each.

The highest tolls of 19 were recorded Jan. 8-10 and the first weekend of February.

Six of the past weekend's fatalities were recorded Friday night, while seven, including the triple-death accident occurred Saturday. Only one death was reported Sunday.

Stay On Jobs

Maintenance of Way Workers and the Hotel and Restaurant Employees Union reached settlements in February covering 243,000 railroad workers.

The agreements provided wage increases averaging 44 per cent over 42 months.

Congress' emergency laws banning the strike provided for President Nixon to suggest a solution if agreement wasn't reached by today. The President's report Feb. 18 asked for partial strikes that would not create a major emergency, or imposition of the recommendations made by federal mediators; that a 32 per cent wage hike be made, provided work rules changes management wanted also were effected.

The unions vigorously opposed changes in work rules, saying thousands of workers would lose their jobs. Management said they were necessary to efficiency.

Carriers faced even more labor difficulty as March began. The Brotherhood of Signalmen has said it will strike March 5, and the American Train Dispatchers Union has voted a strike, but set no date. However, the Railway Labor Act, exhausted before last December's strike remains in effect for the signalmen and dispatchers, so President Nixon can obtain a 60-day cooling off period should agreements not be reached.

Circleville Man Recovering From Gunshot Wound

Gary T. Bigham of 138 Nicholas Dr. is reported in "satisfactory" condition in Lancaster-Fairfield County Hospital where he was admitted early Saturday with a gun shot wound.

Bigham, 31 was shot around 3 a.m. Saturday at a Lancaster address by a man who resided in the dwelling.

Lancaster Police reported the man who fired the shot was the father of the family and lived in the basement of the home.

Bigham was wounded when he went down the basement stairs after being advised to "keep out" by the tenant. An altercation had previously begun when Bigham and others were apparently making too much noise in the building according to Lancaster Police.

The police have completed their investigation. No charges were filed.

Mt. Victory Inn Gutted

KENTON, Ohio (AP) — Fire early today gutted the Mt. Victory Plaza Inn, in Mt. Victory, 10 miles south of Kenton on Ohio 31.

About 30 firemen and six pieces of equipment from the Kenton and Mt. Victory fire departments battled the blaze for more than four hours before bringing it under control.

The fire was reported shortly before midnight when grease from a frier caught fire and spread up a kitchen wall. By the time firemen arrived flames had broken through the roof.

Low water pressure reportedly hampered firefighting efforts. The town's entire reserve water supply — a lone water tower — was drained.

Fire officials reported the restaurant and banquet room at the inn destroyed and an adjoining gift shop severely damaged. No dollar estimate of damage was immediately available.

There were no injuries.

Soviets Slash Prices In Half

The Communist party newspaper said prices were cut on television sets, washing machines, motorcycles plastic goods, electric shavers and ball-point pens. The cuts ranged from 19 per cent on current models of television sets and motorcycles to 50 per cent on ballpoint pens.

Pravda indicated further improvements would take place in the consumer sector. The paper called for "radical changes" in the quality and appearance of footwear and clothes.

Lowering Of Route 188 Culvert Sought

Pickaway County Commissioners, today authorized Hewitt Cromley, county ditch supervisor, to ask the state highway department to lower a culvert on Route 188 to alleviate flooding in the Northwood Park Subdivision.

Commission Chairman Dick T. Tootle said the state highway department had promised two years ago to lower the culvert under the road but had taken no action yet.

In other action today all bids submitted for a hydraulic excavator for the county engineering department were rejected. The bids were either over the engineers estimate or did not comply with specifications. The bids for the piece of equipment will be readvertised.

Maintenance assessments for Hughes county ditch were approved by the commissioners. Assessments are charged against benefiting property owners in Harrison Twp. and the village of South Bloomfield.

Animal claims of $30 each were approved for Dave Bircher of Ashville and James Bowers of Williamsport.

Tootle, Charles Morris and Wayne Hines were all present for today's session of the county board of commissioners.

Wheels taken from another vehicle in the garage were evidently used to tow the racer away. Method of entry into the building has not been determined.

Authorities estimate that more than 8 million Americans are ulcer victims at some time during their life. Hundreds of patients consult doctors each month because of ulcer symptoms, and about 9,000 American men die each year as a result of ulcer complications.

While the cause of all ulcer conditions may remain obscure, a major cause is spinal nerve lesions with, or without, emotional tension. This explains the effectiveness of modern chiropractic care in ulcer cases. corridor wall was blown away and littered the floor along with glass from broken windows.

Gold lace curtains were pushed out against and sometimes through broken windows all the way down to the ornately painted committee and reception rooms on the north end of the Senate Chamber. The front door, another 50 feet away, was broken.

The Senate barber shop, across a small hallway from the men's room, was badly littered and mirrors and windows were shattered but the barber chairs and other heavy equipment were not mangled or moved.

The outside of the historic Old Senate Chamber, which was used from 1800 to 1908 and was the scene of President John Adams' inauguration, Nov. 22, 1800, was not damaged. The door was closed and newsmen did not look inside.

Capitol police said there had been six bomb threats since Christmas. Chief Powell said routine procedures were used between 1 a.m. and 1:32 a.m. when the blast occurred.

Sen. George Aiken, R-Vt., returned from viewing the damage and said he believes the warning phone call and its early-morning timing bear the "earmarks of organization."

Engineers in the office of the architect of the Capitol looked for possible structural injury to the historic and ancient west front.

Thomas F. Clancy, supervising engineer of the Capitol, said through a spokesman that it was too early to determine the full extent of the damage.

Windows were blasted out directly above the huge wooden beams that were braced against the West front several years ago, but there were no visible cracks or any other damage in the wall itself.

There were cracks, however, in the interior section of another wall some distance from the west front close to the blast.

The Senate Chamber itself, in the new section of the building, was not damaged.

Washington, D.C. Police, FBI and Army bomb experts from nearby Ft. McNair searched the building. Washington police used German shepherd dogs, and combed other parts of the Capitol looking for any other bombs.

The Capitol had closed to the public at 5 p.m. EST Sunday. Officials said all custodial personnel had left the building some hours before the explosions. Only members of the Capitol police force were inside at the time.

Figures Down, Monies Up In Recordings

Recordings processed during the month of February in the office of County Recorder Hazel M. Yeatts totaled 192, down from the previous month and down from Feb., 1970. Although total figures were lower in comparison, the amount of money involved in the 54 real estate mortgage cancellations was a record $828,493.22.

Over $1 million was again involved in the mortgages. The total figure was $1,120,788.23 for 59 mortgages, not a high.

Other recordings contained in the report concerned 43 deeds, 50 miscellaneous recordings, and filing and processing of 177 financing statements.

Man Fined, Jailed For Resisting Arrest

William L. Graham, Laurelville, was fined a total of $160 and costs and sentenced to six months in the Pickaway County Jail on charges of resisting arrest, assaulting a police officer and intoxication. Municipal Court Judge Sterling Lamb levied the fine and sentence when Graham pleaded guilty to the charges Friday.

Ohio Weekend Traffic Toll Edges Higher; 14 Are Killed

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Boosted by a triple-fatality accident east of Bowling Green and a double-death accident in downtown Toledo, Ohio's weekend traffic death count edged up to 14 over the past weekend just ended.

That was the highest figure for the past three weekends, following two weekends which tied for the year's low with nine deaths each.

The highest tolls of 19 were recorded Jan. 8-10 and the first weekend of February.

Six of the past weekend's fatalities were recorded Friday night, while seven, including the triple-death accident occurred Saturday. Only one death was reported Sunday.

Stay On Jobs

Maintenance of Way Workers and the Hotel and Restaurant Employees Union reached settlements in February covering 243,000 railroad workers.

The agreements provided wage increases averaging 44 per cent over 42 months.

Congress' emergency laws banning the strike provided for President Nixon to suggest a solution if agreement wasn't reached by today. The President's report Feb. 18 asked for partial strikes that would not create a major emergency, or imposition of the recommendations made by federal mediators; that a 32 per cent wage hike be made, provided work rules changes management wanted also were effected.

The unions vigorously opposed changes in work rules, saying thousands of workers would lose their jobs. Management said they were necessary to efficiency.

Carriers faced even more labor difficulty as March began.

The Brotherhood of Signalmen has said it will strike March 5, and the American Train Dispatchers Union has voted a strike, but set no date. However, the Railway Labor Act, exhausted before last December's strike remains in effect for the signalmen and dispatchers, so President Nixon can obtain a 60-day cooling off period should agreements not be reached.

Circleville Man Recovering From Gunshot Wound

Gary T. Bigham of 138 Nicholas Dr. is reported in "satisfactory" condition in Lancaster-Fairfield County Hospital where he was admitted early Saturday with a gun shot wound.

Bigham, 31 was shot around 3 a.m. Saturday at a Lancaster address by a man who resided in the dwelling.

Lancaster Police reported the man who fired the shot was the father of the family and lived in the basement of the home.

Bigham was wounded when he went down the basement stairs after being advised to "keep out" by the tenant. An altercation had previously begun when Bigham and others were apparently making too much noise in the building according to Lancaster Police.

The police have completed their investigation. No charges were filed.

Mt. Victory Inn Guttled

KENTON, Ohio (AP) — Fire early today gutted the Mt. Victory Plaza Inn, in Mt. Victory, 10 miles south of Kenton on Ohio 31.

About 30 firemen and six pieces of equipment from the Kenton and Mt. Victory fire departments battled the blaze for more than four hours before bringing it under control.

The fire was reported shortly before midnight when grease from a fryer caught fire and spread up a kitchen wall. By the time firemen arrived flames had broken through the roof.

Low water pressure reportedly hampered firefighting efforts. The town's entire reserve water supply — a lone water tower — was drained.

Fire officials reported the restaurant and banquet room at the inn destroyed and an adjoining gift shop severely damaged. No dollar estimate of damage was immediately available.

There were no injuries.

Soviets Slash Prices In Half

The Communist party newspaper said prices were cut on television sets, washing machines, motorcycles plastic goods, electric shavers and ballpoint pens. The cuts ranged from 19 per cent on current models of television sets and motorcycles to 50 per cent on ballpoint pens.

Pravda indicated further improvements would take place in the consumer sector. The paper called for "radical changes" in the quality and appearance of footwear and clothes.

Lowering Of Route 188 Culvert Sought

Pickaway County Commissioners, today authorized Hewitt Cromley, county ditch supervisor, to ask the state highway department to lower a culvert on Route 188 to alleviate flooding in the Northwood Park Subdivision.

Commission Chairman Dick T. Tootle said the state highway department had promised two years ago to lower the culvert under the road but had taken no action yet.

In other action today all bids submitted for a hydraulic excavator for the county engineering department were rejected. The bids were either over the engineers estimate or did not comply with specifications. The bids for the piece of equipment will be readvertised.

Maintenance assessments for Hughes county ditch were approved by the commissioners. Assessments are charged against benefiting property owners in Harrison Twp. and the village of South Bloomfield.

Animal claims of $30 each were approved for Dave Birch of Ashville and James Bowers of Williamsport.

Tootle, Charles Morris and Wayne Hines were all present for today's session of the county board of commissioners.

Wheels taken from another vehicle in the garage were evidently used to tow the racer away. Method of entry into the building has not been determined.

Medicare Enrollment Open Through End Of March

People who are 65 and haven't already signed up for Medicare medical insurance may enroll now through March 31 at any social security office, according to Harry Bieber, social security district manager in Chillicothe.

Medicare medical insurance helps pay doctor bills. A person may first enroll in the program within the 3 months before or the 3 months after the month he reaches 65. He may also sign up during the annual general enrollment period — January, February and March — within the 3 years following the end of his first-sign-up period.

"Almost anyone 65 or over in the United States is eligible for Medicare medical insurance," Mr. Bieber said. "More than 9 out of 10 in that age group are enrolled. Medical insurance is funded by individual voluntary monthly premiums that are matched by the Federal Government.

If a person enrolls after his first, or 65th birthday, sign-up period, he pays a premium that is 10 per cent higher for each full year that elapses after that first sign-up period. If you enroll and then cancel your Medicare medical insurance, you're eligible to re-enroll only once. You may sign up again during a general enrollment period — January, February, or March — of each year that begins within 3 years after your protection stopped."

Medicare medical insurance supplements Medicare hospital insurance which is funded by regular social security contributions and helps pay

Franklin Gets National Look At City Cleanup Campaign

FRANKLIN, Ohio (AP) — This city of 10,000 is attracting national attention in its experimental efforts to clean up its garbage and sewage problems with an environment concept developed by an inventive city councilman and a hustling city manager.

Already under construction on the same site are a new sewage treatment plant and a re-cycling garbage plant. The sewage plant is set to open in 1972. The trash operation starts May 1.

City Manager Bernard Eichholtz, former mayor of Covington, Ky., worked for and gained a $2.3 million grant for the sewage plant.

Joe Baxter, a city councilman and holder of 53 patents for development of paper making machinery, designed the garbage processing plant that separates metal, paper fiber and other products for sale to industry.

Baxter is a designing engineer at the Black-Clawson Co. in Middletown. He worked four years in designing the $1.75 million plant.

"All I did was see a lot of pieces lying around and thought of putting them together," Baxter said modestly.

Called a "hydropulper," Black-Clawson built a small experimental model for use at its plant.

"It has worked beautifully," said William Herbert, director of engineering at the firm.

"Our hydropulper will handle anything dumped into it."

City Manager Eichholtz said representatives from both Cincinnati, Milwaukee, Wisc., and other cities have visited the construction site recently. He said all are very interested in the process as a possible answer for their problems.

The garbage plant not only will dispose of garbage without polluting the air or Great Miami River, but cut costs by recycling materials for sale to industry.

The process compacts and rejects some hard material. This is to be transported to a landfill where Franklin hopes to develop a park after reclaiming land along the river.

The remaining 90 per cent of the garbage is separated into paper fibers, pulp, glass, aluminum and plastic. What cannot be reused is burned at a high temperature.

Medicare Enrollment Open Through End Of March

People who are 65 and haven't already signed up for Medicare medical insurance may enroll now through March 31 at any social security office, according to Harry Bieber, social security district manager in Chillicothe.

Medicare medical insurance helps pay doctor bills. A person may first enroll in the program within the 3 months before or the 3 months after the month he reaches 65. He may also sign up during the annual general enrollment period — January, February and March — within the 3 years following the end of his first-sign-up period.

"Almost anyone 65 or over in the United States is eligible for Medicare medical insurance," Mr. Bieber said. "More than 9 out of 10 in that age group are enrolled. Medical insurance is funded by individual voluntary monthly premiums that are matched by the Federal Government."

If a person enrolls after his first, or 65th birthday, sign-up period, he pays a premium that is 10 per cent higher for each full year that elapses after that first sign-up period. If you enroll and then cancel your Medicare medical insurance, you're eligible to re-enroll only once. You may sign up again during a general enrollment period — January, February, or March — of each year that begins within 3 years after your protection stopped."

Medicare medical insurance supplements Medicare hospital insurance which is funded by regular social security contributions and helps pay hospital bills for eligible people 65 or over. Medicare is administered by the Social Security Administration.

Your social security office is located at 606 Central Center in Chillicothe. The office hours are from 8:45 a.m. to 4:45 p.m., Monday through Friday (holidays excepted) and the telephone number is 775-4930 (614).

'Raisin' Author's Newest Creation Slated At OSU

"To Be Young, Gifted and Black," last season's longest running off-Broadway hit comedy drama, will be presented in Columbus at the Mershon Auditorium April 1 for a single performance.

Reserved seat tickets sale is now in progress for the play, which recently began the second half of a record-breaking national tour of 115 cities and colleges, including Ohio State University.

Fly ash that remains will be used in the sewage treatment plant for cleaning water.

Retardation Foes Attend Meet Today

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Two opposing groups were expected to attend today's session of Gov. John J. Gilligan's Task Force on Mental Health and Retardation in Columbus.

The Ohio Association for Retarded Children will reiterate its stand that programs for trainable retarded children—those with IQs of 25 to 50—should remain under the Ohio Division of Mental Retardation.

A group of Cleveland - area parents wants the retarded children's programs placed under the Ohio Department of Education, as are programs for the teachable retarded whose IQs range from 50 to 80.

The Cleveland-area group contends that retarded children can be taught more effectively and obtain greater benefits from a public school setting.

The Association for Retarded Children believes a takeover by the education department would lower standards achieved in many counties because both the department and local school districts are hard-pressed to meet needs of regular pupils.

Another group that planned to attend today's task force meeting will seek state support of programs for profoundly retarded children under school age. Profoundly retarded have IQs of less than 25.

Hattie Larlham, who operates the Larlham Foundation in Portage County, said the state funds programs for school-age children.

"In retardation," she said, "early detection is vital. Many children now end up in institutions when treatment at an early age could have helped them."

The group also plans to submit petitions bearing 15,000 to 20,000 signatures to Gov. Gilligan this afternoon.

Vanishing Transient

Of the estimated four million — more or less — unemployed in the United States today, less than half are classified as belonging to the ranks of the transient workers, some of whom are usually employed at certain seasons and are "drifters" who seldom hold one job for more than a brief period.

That there are fewer than two million transient workers in the United States today points up a remarkable change from the former pattern of industry. In an era when the total work force was less than half its present size, a much larger number of workers subscribed to the theory that to stay in one job long was deleterious to ambition and tended to make life dull and work routine.

Those with trades and others of no particular occupation migrated from state to state and coast to coast, seeing the scenery as they worked. Some seemed never to have difficulty in landing jobs, others fell upon occasional parlous days.

Various reasons are advanced for the decline in the ranks of transient workers. The one most often mentioned has to do with the more intricate processes of getting on a payroll. Business generally frowns upon a large labor turnover and seeks workers who will remain for lengthy periods, bookkeeping, taxes, etc., being what they are.

Keep It Down

Like other forms of pollution, noise pollution tends to creep up a notch at a time until suddenly it becomes overwhelming. But unlike dirty water, filthy air or mounting refuse, which have become unacceptable even to the layman, many people still look upon noise as something man can live with.

Only up to a point. That point has been passed in many everyday situations. Acoustical experts estimate that the noise level reached during peak traffic hours in large cities averages between 80 and 100 decibels, with 90 the level at which sustained noise can damage hearing, not to mention other physiological effects which are not yet fully understood.

Because of the direct relationship between noise and such ailments as high blood pressure, problems of the digestive system, mental illness and increased respiration is not apparent to any but the trained practitioner, it tends to be overlooked.

But medical researchers have confirmed the link. It is not helpful to exaggerate the dangers of noise pollution, but it is necessary to recognize they exist and to take steps to keep them down to levels which do not endanger health.

Our Increasing Debt

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN
From time to time I receive interesting pages from a "cooperative" book that is nearing its completion. Called "Economic Inequities," the book is to consist partly of 50 essays by William D. Partridge, an iconoclastic student of economics who plans to place one article each in 50 newspapers in 50 separate states. (Some 45 have been published already.)

In addition to Mr. Partridge's contributions, there will be 50 critical commentaries by "co-authors" who are being recruited from among professional economists. The major financing of the book is being provided for by C. R. Walgreen Jr. of the Walgreen Drug Company of Chicago, who has made up the book's notes of indebtedness to the University of Michigan. Profits from book sales are to go to American universities.

Mr. Partridge's competence is plain from what he writes, but it is nonetheless interesting that he has had commendations mostly in the Congressional Record, from the late Senator

Ralph Flanders of Vermont and present-day Senators Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania, Gordon Allott of Colorado, John Tower of Texas and Herman Talmadge of Georgia. Not that the Senators are economic experts, but they obviously have common sense. They will be called upon to legislate on some of the current proposals affecting business that Mr. Partridge thinks would be quite disastrous.

As might be guessed, Mr. Partridge is something of a Cassandra. And Cassandra, as students of Greek mythology know, while unheeded, turned out to be right. Mr. Partridge thinks our economists are guilty of mathematical absurdities, the chief one being that they pay no attention to what he calls the Debt-Production Ratio. In every year from 1962 through 1969 what Mr. Partridge describes as the warning economic "tilt light" has glared brighter: private debt has increased faster than production. In 1968 we owed almost twice what we produced.

As the old song has it, "Lost 'em all, lose 'em all, can this go on through the fall?" Mr. Partridge is guilty of holding to a quaint old-fashioned belief that you can't get a sustained increase in production going when (a) capital consumption (what you use up) exceeds capital formation (what you save to replenish and increase the product of industry) and when (b) wages outpace whatever increase in productivity may result in individual cases from better methods and the use of better machinery.

What Mr. Partridge is saying mathematically is that you can't add by indulging in subtraction. Nor can you build a bigger whole from shrinking parts. How, so Mr. Partridge asks, can an economy surge ahead "at the same time that (a) real per capita GNP (Gross National Product, less production not sold but gifted), and (b) real per capita corporate net worth, and (c) real per capita personal income (less welfare payments) all are decreasing at the same time that (d) prices, and (e) unemployment, and (f) public and private debt (e.g., a net increase of $132 billion in 1969 alone) all are increasing?"

The delusion that you can get more from a shrinking and less efficient machine results willy-nilly in accelerating inflation as our money-masters try to balance the equation by the creation of paper tokens. Mr. Partridge considers that virtually everything being done by Washington to bring the Debt-Production Ratio into balance only serves to make matters worse. When you can't produce and sell enough to pay the interest on your debt and to "roll it over" when its terminal date comes, you must either go bankrupt or, with political help, cheat your creditors by paying them off in paper of declining worth.

Mr. Partridge, who admits to being a disagreeable man, wants to know how you are going to pay for such things as environmental control, the military budget and $2,400 per family on the Nixon Family Assistance Plan, out of the surplussed economy that he is predicting? How is New York City to feed a million people who do nothing to feed themselves? As a curbstone economist, I wouldn't know precisely what amount of private and public debt our system can stand. But anyone can see that Mr. Partridge is right about our contemporary trends: checks can't be kited for decade upon decade. If we go on eating our seed corn the only thing that is in question is the timing of welfare collapse and the subsequent social upheaval.

Speaking Of Your Health

By Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

Our 9-year-old boy, the elder of two, has sudden fits of temper, sometimes even without provocation.

A family friend, a nutritionist, feels that his anger may be the result of low blood sugar. A test showed that his blood sugar was rather low.

For the past six months, our son has been deprived of all sweets but as yet there has been no change in his personality.

Can low blood sugar produce such strange behavior in a child?

Mr. and Mrs. B. R., N.Y.
Dear Mr. and Mrs. R.: I am not quite certain what you mean by a "nutritionist," and I certainly am not impressed by how the diagnosis of low blood sugar was arrived at in your son's case.

A single blood study for sugar is insufficient evidence of hypoglycemia (low blood sugar).

Hypoglycemia seems to have captivated the attention of a great many food faddists and "nutritionists," who are very generous in offering this explanation for many physical and emotional symptoms.

I feel you were doing your child a great disservice by falling into this trap.

Hypoglycemia is a very complex disorder. To illustrate how complex it is, I will name only a few of the many conditions associated with it.

Tumors of the pancreas, complications of diabetes, impaired function of the liver, deficiencies of the adrenal gland, inactivity of the pituitary gland in the brain, disorders of carbohydrate metabolism, and marked chemical imbalance in the blood may all be associated with hypoglycemia.

It takes the highest degree of laboratory technique to definitely establish the existence and the cause of hypoglycemia. You can be sure that one test is inadequate, and the destiny of your child should not be based on it.

Your situation is not unusual. Thousands of alcoholics have been caught in the web of "nutritionists" who falsely believe that treatment for low blood sugar is a "must" in the solution of their problem.

If your son's temper tantrums are felt to be due to low blood sugar alone, then certainly all the elaborate laboratory tests should be completed.

First, however, your boy deserves the attention of his own doctor. Then, a battery of psychological tests will undoubtedly be part of the recommended approach to his problem.

To delay seeking this kind of help is to do your child a great injustice.

All muscles — the heart, too — improve their efficiency with moderate exercise.

THE NEW SCENIC CALENDAR GOES UP AND THE OLD YEARS IS DISCARDED RIGHT ON THE BUTTON...

BUT THE GIRLIE CALENDARS...WHO CARES WHAT YEAR IT IS? THEY NEVER COME DOWN...

Vanishing Transient

Of the estimated four million — more or less — unemployed in the United States today, less than half are classified as belonging to the ranks of the transient workers, some of whom are usually employed at certain seasons and are "drifters" who seldom hold one job for more than a brief period.

That there are fewer than two million transient workers in the United States today points up a remarkable change from the former pattern of industry. In an era when the total work force was less than half its present size, a much larger number of workers subscribed to the theory that to stay in one job long was deleterious to ambition and tended to make life dull and work routine.

Those with trades and others of no particular occupation migrated from state to state and coast to coast, seeing the scenery as they worked. Some seemed never to have difficulty in landing jobs, others fell upon occasional parlous days.

Various reasons are advanced for the decline in the ranks of transient workers. The one most often mentioned has to do with the more intricate processes of getting on a payroll. Business generally frowns upon a large labor turnover and seeks workers who will remain for lengthy periods, bookkeeping, taxes, etc., being what they are.

Keep It Down

Like other forms of pollution, noise pollution tends to creep up a notch at a time until suddenly it becomes overwhelming. But unlike dirty water, filthy air or mounting refuse, which have become unacceptable even to the layman, many people still look upon noise as something man can live with.

Only up to a point. That point has been passed in many everyday situations. Acoustical experts estimate that the noise level reached during peak traffic hours in large cities averages between 80 and 100 decibels, with 90 the level at which sustained noise can damage hearing, not to mention other physiological effects which are not yet fully understood.

Because of the direct relationship between noise and such ailments as high blood pressure, problems of the digestive system, mental illness and increased respiration is not apparent to any but the trained practitioner, it tends to be overlooked.

But medical researchers have confirmed the link. It is not helpful to exaggerate the dangers of noise pollution, but it is necessary to recognize they exist and to take steps to keep them down to levels which do not endanger health.

Our Increasing Debt

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

From time to time I receive interesting pages from a "cooperative" book that is nearing its completion. Called "Economic Inequities," the book is to consist partly of 50 essays by William D. Partridge, an iconoclastic student of economics who plans to place one article each in 50 newspapers in 50 separate states. (Some 45 have been published already.)

In addition to Mr. Partridge's contributions, there will be 50 critical commentaries by "co-authors" who are being recruited from among professional economists. The major financing of the book is being provided for by C. R. Walgreen Jr. of the Walgreen Drug Company of Chicago, who has made over the book's notes of indebtedness to the University of Michigan. Profits from book sales are to go to American universities.

Mr. Partridge's competence is plain from what he writes, but it is nonetheless interesting that he has had commendations mostly in the Congressional Record, from the late Senator

Ralph Flanders of Vermont and present-day Senators Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania, Gordon Allott of Colorado, John Tower of Texas and Herman Talmadge of Georgia. Not that the Senators are economic experts, but they obviously have common sense. They will be called upon to legislate on some of the current proposals affecting business that Mr. Partridge thinks would be quite disastrous.

As might be guessed, Mr. Partridge is something of a Cassandra. And Cassandra, as students of Greek mythology know, while unheeded, turned out to be right. Mr. Partridge thinks our economists are guilty of mathematical absurdities, the chief one being that they pay no attention to what he calls the Debt-Production Ratio. In every year from 1962 through 1969 what Mr. Partridge describes as the warning economic "tilt light" has glared brighter: private debt has increased faster than production. In 1968 we owed almost twice what we produced.

As the old song has it, "Lost 'em all, lose 'em all, can this go on through the fall?" Mr. Partridge is guilty of holding to a quaint old-fashioned belief that you can't get a sustained increase in production going when (a) capital consumption (what you use up) exceeds capital formation (what you save to replenish and increase the product of industry) and when (b) wages outpace whatever increase in productivity may result in individual cases from better methods and the use of better machinery.

What Mr. Partridge is saying mathematically is that you can't add by indulging in subtraction. Nor can you build a bigger whole from shrinking parts. How, so Mr. Partridge asks, can an economy surge ahead "at the same time that (a) real per capita GNP (Gross National Product, less production not sold but gifted), and (b) real per capita corporate net worth, and (c) real per capita personal income (less welfare payments) all are decreasing at the same time that (d) prices, and (e) unemployment, and (f) public and private debt (e.g., a net increase of $132 billion in 1969 alone) all are increasing?"

The delusion that you can get more from a shrinking and less efficient machine results willy-nilly in accelerating inflation as our money-masters try to balance the equation by the creation of paper tokens. Mr. Partridge considers that virtually everything being done by Washington to bring the Debt-Production Ratio into balance only serves to make matters worse. When you can't produce and sell enough to pay the interest on your debt and to "roll it over" when its terminal date comes, you must either go bankrupt or, with political help, cheat your creditors by paying them off in paper of declining worth.

Mr. Partridge, who admits to being a disagreeable man, wants to know how you are going to pay for such things as environmental control, the military budget and $2,400 per family on the Nixon Family Assistance Plan, out of the surges economy that he is predicting? How is New York City to feed a million people who do nothing to feed themselves? As a curbstone economist, I wouldn't know precisely what amount of private and public debt our system can stand. But anyone can see that Mr. Partridge is right about our contemporary trends: checks can't be kited for decade upon decade. If we go on eating our seed corn the only thing that is in question is the timing of welfare collapse and the subsequent social upheaval.

Miss Linda Jean Barnhart
Bride Of James H. Lowry

MRS. JAMES HAROLD LOWRY

Wedding vows were solemnized 2:30 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 27, in Hoge Memorial Presbyterian Church, Columbus, for Miss Linda Jean Barnhart and Mr. James Harold Lowry. Rev. Robert Gish, pastor of the church, and Rev. Campbell of the First Presbyterian Church of Delaware performed the double ring ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Ray Barnhart of Columbus and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold V. Lowry of Delaware. Mrs. C. R. Barnhart Sr., 163 Montclair Ave., is the bride's grandmother.

Sunburst arrangements of white china mums with red satin accents adorned the altar. Emerald foliage trees flanked cathedral tapers in candelabra at either side of the altar. Red and white satin bows marked the pews. A program of music was presented by Mrs. James Cooke, soloist and Mr. Jerry Fritz, organist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was in a high waisted full length gown of candlelight slipper satin accented by a lace bodice. Flower motifs highlighted the A-line skirt, chapel train and full length sleeves which ended in bridal points over her hands. Her veil of French illusion was caught to a lace dior bow. She carried a candlelight lace edged Victorian bouquet of snow crystal pompons, white statice, red sweetheart roses and stephanotis florets with a shower of streamers.

Matron of honor was Mrs. William James Cooke of Norwalk, sister of the bride. Mrs.

Harry Siculan, Arcanum, sister of the groom was bridesmaid and Miss Darcy Siculan, niece of the groom was flower girl.

The attendants were gowned alike in full length slightly fitted gowns fashioned of cherry red velvet. Bell shaped sleeves and standing shaped collars were accented with white lace. They carried bouquets of white miniature carnations tipped in red and red sweetheart roses in the Victorian design with red and white streamers. The flower girl carried a white lace and tulle basket with red and white floral petals. A matching headpiece complimented her dress.

Mr. F. Lon Lowry, brother of the bridegroom of Delaware, served as best man. Ushers were Mr. James M. Brown of Delaware, Mr. Robert C. Barnhart, Columbus, brother of the bride; and Mr. Harry B. Siculan or Arcanum, brother-in-law of the groom.

A reception in the Wold Fellowship Hall at the church immediately followed the ceremony. Hostesses were Mrs. F. Lon Lowry of Delaware, sister-in-law of the groom; Mrs. Glenn Rhorer, Columbus; Mrs. David Foresta, Indianapolis, Ind.; Miss Marilyn Rothe, Columbus and Miss Peggy Sapp, Columbus. Mrs. Robert C. Barnhart, Columbus, sister-in-law of the bride presided at the guest book.

Mrs. Barnhart, the bride's mother, was attired in a moss green crepe dress in the princess style with a flower trim on the standing collar and cap sleeves. She wore a purse corsage of yellow cymbidium

BPW District Director
Speaks To Local Club

Helen Slavens, director of District 10 Ohio Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, was guest speaker at the Thursday dinner meeting of the Circleville Club. Among members present at the L-K Restaurant for the occasion were three past directors of District 10, Mary K. Kennedy, Clarissa Talbut and Dr. Nancy Lu Conrad.

A special highlight of the session was recognition of the 15th Anniversary of the Foundation. This channel of Federation activity was created Feb. 27, 1956 to carry on educational, literary, scientific and charitable purposes for the benefit of business and professional women. The program for the evening was arranged by Leora Sayre, public relations chairman and Harriet Kaylor, first vice president.

A quiz on pertinent inclusions of club, state and national parts of the Federation aided the weighing and gaining of organizational knowledge.

During her talk on "Affairs Of The World" Miss Slavens elaborated on many current problems that are not new and directly relate to water, fire, air and earth. The Golden Rule was cited as she reviewed practices, policies and laws that could help make the world more liveable.

In the summary the speaker referred to this quotation — "If the world were good for nothing else — it is a fine subject for speculation" — and urged constant support of the Big Program of Federation and Foundation which is built from these lead categories — world affairs, civic participation and personal development.

Jo Ann Brink, president, guided the business portion of the evening.

All present shared in sending greetings to the following members who were not able to be present: Anna Chandler, Esther Work, Marguerite Clark, Mary Alice Greenwood, Irma Stevenson and Sharon Ely.

Details of the current WRAP project, a baby sitting course, were given by Dr. Conrad and Margaret Whaley.

A message of appreciation for help with professional training was read from Deborah Johnson. April 29 was announced as the date for the Annual Recognition of Girl Graduates by a Career Advancement party program. An invitation was read from the Delaware Club to its "This Land Is Mine" meeting on March 30.

Initial steps were exercised toward selection of a club representative to Buckeye Girl's State.

Dear Abby: Common Sense Is Best Solution

DEAR ABBY: Our daughter married a man last spring of whom we violently disapproved. She became pregnant immediately. Her husband asked her to get an abortion. She refused, so he tore her wedding ring from her finger and literally threw her out of their apartment and took her key. She then came home to live with us.

Our problem: She wants to send birth announcements to out-of-town friends and relatives when the baby is born, but she is bitter about her husband and doesn't want his name to appear on the announcements. I believe that since he is the baby's father and is still her husband until she takes steps to divorce him (which she has not done), his name should be on the announcements. Or may we, as the grandparents, send out birth announcements in order to exclude his name from the card? Please hurry your advice as the baby is due soon.

DEAR COMPLICATED MESS: Such "complicated messes" are not covered by my good friend, Amy, the etiquette expert, so your best bet is to use common sense.

To those whom your daughter wants to send the news of her new arrival, a personal note should suffice. ("I've had a baby and am home with mother and dad again," should do it.) An announcement in which the father's name is deliberately omitted would raise questions which would have to be answered later.

DEAR ABBY: What can a fat man do about flabbiness? A woman has it easy. She can just put on a girdle and it helps to firm her up so she doesn't look like she is spreading all over the place. I suppose a man could do the same thing, but in today's society no normal man would be caught dead in a lady's girdle.

I tried one on once and I know it would help my looks but I just couldn't stand the ridicule of being called a fag. So what should I do?

FAT MAN: There are girdles for men. Ask around.

DEAR ABBY: What do you do when you are 11 years old and your mother still makes you take a bath with your 4-year-old brother? No matter how much I protest, she makes me. I already have told her how I feel about it but she won't listen to me. She respects your opinion so please help me, Abby.

TOO BIG: You don't say whether you are a boy or a girl. If you are a boy, perhaps your mother is trying to conserve hot water, in which case, I suggest you cool it. (Not the water—the protest.) If you are a girl, tell her that Abby said a girl deserves to have privacy when she feels she needs it. Case dismissed! Good luck.

DEAR ABBY: Your "Confidential to M.R. in Memphis: Marry him" jolted me. I am M.R. and I live in Memphis. Marry whom? Please send me his name and address. M.R. (MEMPHIS)

Oldest Maine Lobsterman Decides To Retire At 94

By PHYLLIS AUSTIN
Associated Press Writer
FRIENDSHIP, Maine (AP) — At the age of 94, spry, Bible-quoting Charles D. Murphy is retiring as the oldest lobster fisherman in Maine.

A wiry man with a wisp of white hair and twinkling blue eyes, Murphy has made his living from the coastal waters around Monhegan Island for 75 years. "I'll miss it, but home is the best place to be when you're 94," he said recently. "I'm slowing up some, you know."

Murphy lives in a rambling two-story wooden home in this Knox County fishing village of 800.

To keep busy now that he is not lobstering, Murphy has taken more orders for knitting nylon "heads," or nets, for lobster traps. He said he knit 2,500 heads last year and made about $200 but hopes to surpass that this year.

"If I knit 15 a day, I'm doing good," he said. "I don't push. I just knit off and on when I have a leisure."

There are three heads on traps. Side heads are attached to both ends of the pot and allow the lobster to enter. The "bed-room" head on the inside contains the bait and prevents the lobster from escaping.

"You don't find many people who would work for $1.50 a day like I do," Murphy said. "Today most folks want at least twice as much as that an hour."

"When I first started making a living at lobstering, I used a sailboat or row dory," he said.

"We would get up at 3 a.m., fish out five or six miles off the coast and be back in about 2:30 or 3 p.m. so we could repair the nets for the next day's fishing."

"The gas driven boat came about 1904 here. I was the second man to get one in the harbor."

"Of course the one to pay for this was the poor lobster," Murphy said. "We took more and more, and I worried about it."

Before the turn of the century, Murphy said, he got seven cents a lobster.

"You couldn't do much at that price now. They go by the pound. The average lobster today would be about $1.50 a piece," he said.

"Lobstering is a good business. It doesn't give you a great many extras but a good living. You have to work pretty hard to get what's out there," he said.

Views On TV - Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — "Incident in San Francisco," an ABC film feature and pilot for a projected series, apparently is based on a theory that it's about time to get back to the good old-fashioned newspaper melodrama.

Maybe it is: The Sunday night program was a busy two hours, so well produced and so updated with contemporary situations that they almost concealed the presence of all the stereotypes found in "The Front Page," TV's early "Big Story," and old Frank McHugh movies.

The implicit moral of the show was "don't get involved." It was the story of a man who did, a substantial citizen played by Richard Kiley. He was returning to a parking lot for his car and found three young bullies roughing up an elderly musician. He waded in on impulse and when two of the toughs had fled, one boy had fallen to his death and the old man was in critical condition. All witnesses had disappeared.

The Good Samaritan found himself under police investigation, charged with homicide, his job in balance and stuck with an expensive lawyer's fees.

Enter the young reporter, played by Christopher Connelly who presumably would have the lead in the series. He, practically alone, believed the man's story and sets out to find witnesses. There was the mandatory cynical editor with the heart of gold and the peppery publisher.

The search for witnesses turned up a syndicate overload, a victim afraid his sordid police history would be publicized, and one eyewitness who clammed up until after the final commercial — a silence which helped bring about the big fight scene at the end.

NBC's "Children's Theatre" Saturday morning was probably as interesting to grownups as it was to the young audience. Called "Circus Town," it was an excellent report on circus buffis of Peru, Ind.—some 2,000 ranging in age from 6 to golden agers who spend months each year producing a big, amateur show.

The most unusual part showed the training and practice sessions. We saw a small boy strung with protective ropes learning to do a back flip. There was a little girl being instructed on locking her thumbs around a trapeze bar before taking her first swing. A retired circus bareback rider was teaching beginners how to keep their balance on a trampoline.

"Joyce and Barbara: For Adults Only," the latest of the proliferating syndicated talk shows, was unveiled on a New York station Saturday night. The titillating promise of the title proved illusory and the half hour is pegged on the theory that two female interviewers asking gossip-column and women's magazine type questions are better than one well-prepared questioner.

Joyce Susskind's husband David produces the show and Barbara Howard has developed a sort of Rona Barrett TV style. The half hour seen in New York centered on David Frost. While he handled himself professionally, the interviewers seemed self-conscious and amateurish.

Wildcats Down Miller, 62-53

Laureville came on strong in the final period to down Miller, 62-53, Saturday in the opening round of the Nelsonville-York sectional basketball tournament.

The Wildcats never trailed in the contest but were not able to open up any daylight until the fourth quarter. They led 12-10 at the end of the first canto, held a 24-20 margin at the half, led by one point, 37-36, at the conclusion of the third frame and took the play away in the final stanza.

Roger Weaver, a Wildcat mainstay, was not feeling well and was used sparingly in the contest. He came off the bench several times to garner 10 points and spark the Laureville attack.

Steve McCabe added 19 to the Wildcat scoring, Dave Thompson had 13, Terry Link netted 12 and Don Kempton and Rick Jones had four apiece to complete the totals.

BRUCE Starnier had 16 and Jerry Banks and Sam Hern each added 14 to the Miller scoring.

Laureville shot 25 of 54 from the field for 46 per cent and 12 of 20 from the charity stripe for 60 percent while Miller was 21 of 68 from the floor and 11 of 18 at the foul line.

The Wildcats won the battle of the boards pulling down 35 misses with Link grabbing 13 and Kempton getting eight.

Laureville will return to action 7:30 p.m. Saturday meeting the winner of the Union Furnace-Crooksville clash.

A. J. Foyt Wins Miller 500 Race

ONTARIO, Calif. (AP) — Texan A. J. Foyt and the Wood Brothers put it all together in fine style for a hard-fought, lucrative victory in the first Miller-500 Grand National race for stockcars.

The face, in bright sunshine and balmy weather, on the new Ontario Motor Speedway high-oval course, earned the veteran driver prize and lap money totaling $51,800. It drew 79,000 spectators.

Foyt piloted a thoroughly prepared 1969 Mercury that seemed never to falter during the grueling 3-hour 43-minute race Sunday. The machine was prepared and serviced by the expert Wood Brothers—one of the world's best pit crews.

The reputation was tested just before the race's half way point, when Foyt's crew scurried to put on two tires and add 20 gallons of fuel in just 18.2 seconds. Second, and winning $15,150 for the effort, was Buddy Baker of Charlotte, N.C., followed by Richard Petty of Randleman, N.C., who earned $11,950.

Scioto Drops Title Tilt To Bexley

Scioto dropped a 46-38 decision to Bexley in the championship game of the Groveport Invitational Junior High basketball tournament Friday.

Terry Southerns had 14 points and George Spohn tallied nine to lead the lads from Scioto. Reynoldsburg defeated Hilliard in the consolation game.

Logan Elm Surprises Pickerington, 58-56

Logan Elm advanced to the semi finals of the Lancaster Sectional Tournament with a surprise 58-56 win over Pickerington Saturday afternoon.

Now the Braves meet Canal Winchester 7 p.m. Friday at the Lancaster High School tourney site. LEHS in class A and Teays Valley in Class AA are Pickaway County's two representatives in tournament play.

It was a solid team effort that gave LE Coach Chuck Pritchard the victory over his "friendly enemy" Roger Young the Picktown mentor. Both are graduates of Laureville High School and Wilmington College.

NBA Playoffs Seen Going Down To Wire

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The races for two National Basketball Association playoff berths apparently are going right down to the wire, but even Alfred Hitchcock would have trouble writing suspense into the Cleveland Cavaliers' script.

While the Detroit Pistons nipped the Atlanta Hawks 106-105 Sunday, while the New York Knicks held off Baltimore 110-104 with a late burst, while the Milwaukee Bucks were rallying to beat Boston 111-99... while all this was going on, the hapless Cavaliers are being demolished by Los Angeles in a 61-36 first half en route to a 107-90 shellacking.

In another contest, the Philadelphia 76ers turned back Cincinnati 131-121.

Detroit's hectic victory enabled the Pistons to pick up ground on both second-place Chicago and third-place Phoenix in the Midwest Division, but they still trail the Bulls by three games and the Suns by two.

With the Pistons trailing Atlanta 105-103, Bob Lanier's three-point play with 40 seconds left put them in front and Jimmy Walker wrapped it up with two free throws 30 seconds later. Lanier had 28 points and teammate Dave Bing 27 while Pete Maravich scored 30 and Lou Hudson 24 for the losers.

The Hawks remained one half game in front of Cincinnati in the Central Division when the 76ers whipped the Royals behind Billy Cunningham's 28 points and Wally Jones' 24, the same number posted by the losers' Tom Van Arsdale.

New York, leading Baltimore by only 102-101 with 2½ minutes left, got some breathing room on Cazzie Russell's free throw and Dave DeBusschere's long jumper. Walt Frazier paced the Knicks with 25 points and Willie Reed had 24. They scored 18 and 17, respectively, in the second half. The Bullets' Fred Carter had a career high 30.

The unkindest cut of all, however, for the crippled Bullets—Gus Johnson and Eddie Miles are sidelined—came at halftime when the team doctor examined starting forward Jack Marin and sent him home with the flu.

Bench Signs With Reds, But Many Still Hold Out

The pen, they say, is mightier than the sword. Maybe that's why a lot of major league baseball players don't want to pick one up.

Although Cincinnati's Johnny Bench, California's Clyde Wright, San Francisco's Bobby Bonds, Atlanta's Cleto Boyer and Detroit's Aurelio Rodriguez came to terms Sunday, a simple autograph is becoming the year's rarest object as far as worried general managers are concerned.

Things are so bad that Donn Clendenon, slugging first baseman of the New York Mets, even resigned from his executive position with an Atlanta pen company. Only two years ago, Clendenon threatened to quit baseball for the world of ball-points.

Among the unsigned are San Francisco's Willie Mays, Washington's Frank Howard, Atlanta's Orlando Ceneda, Houston's Joe Morgan, Oakland's Campy Campaneris, Mike Andrews of the Chicago White Sox, Tony Oliva, Ron Perranoski, Cesar Tovar and Bill Zepp of the Minnesota Twins and an even larger contingent of Cincinnati Reds—including Pete Rose, Tony Perez, Lee May, Jim Merritt, Wayne Granger, Clay Carroll and Bernie Carbo.

Bench, Cincinnati's 23-year-old super catcher, had been demanding three-year pact for $500,000. He said he was happy though after signing for what General Manager Bob Hawsman indicated was less than $100,000 for 1971.

"Everything is very well," Bench said. "If I have a good year and we win the pennant again then we'll go from there."

Wright, California's 22-game-winning lefty, signed for an estimated $37,500, third sacker Boyer of the Braves took a slight cut from the $47,500 he made last season. Giants outfielder Bonds settled for $50,000 and infielder Rodriguez showed up at the Tigers' camp and signed at once.

Mays didn't meet with Giants owner Horace Stoneham but did get into a squad game and hit a 400-foot sacrifice fly and a double.

Manager Ted Williams of the Senators asked owner Bob Short about Howard and Short replied, "He wants too much money." General Manager Spec Richardson of the Astros said he isn't making much progress with Morgan and White Sox GM Stu Holcomb threatened to break precedent and divulge the full details of negotiations with second baseman Andrews, obtained in a trade with Boston.

A. J. Foyt Wins Miller 500 Race

ONTARIO, Calif. (AP) — Texan A. J. Foyt and the Wood Brothers put it all together in fine style for a hard-fought lucrative victory in the first Miller 500 Grand National race for stockcars.

The face, in bright sunshine and balmy weather, on the new Ontario Motor Speedway high-oval course, earned the veteran driver prize and lap money totaling $51,800. It drew 78,000 spectators.

Foyt piloted a thoroughly prepared 1969 Mercury that seemed never to falter during the grueling 3-hour 43-minute race Sunday. The machine was prepared and serviced by the expert Wood Brothers—one of the world's best pit crews.

The reputation was tested just before the race's half way point, when Foyt's crew scurried to put on two tires and add 20 gallons of fuel in just 18.2 seconds.

Second, and winning $15,150 for the effort, was Buddy Baker of Charlotte, N.C., followed by Richard Petty of Randleman, N.C., who earned $11,950.

Scioto Drops Title Tilt To Bexley

Scioto dropped a 46-38 decision to Bexley in the championship game of the Groveport Invitational Junior High basketball tournament Friday.

Terry Southers had 14 points and George Spohn tallied nine to lead the lads from Scioto. Reynoldsburg defeated Hilliard in the consolation game.

Logan Elm Surprises Pickerington, 58-56

Logan Elm advanced to the semi finals of the Lancaster Sectional Tournament with a surprise 58-56 win over Pickerington Saturday afternoon.

Now the Braves meet Canal Winchester 7 p.m. Friday at the Lancaster High School tourney site. LEHS in class A and Teays Valley in Class AA are Pickaway County's two representatives in tournament play.

It was a solid team effort that gave LE Coach Chuck Pritchard the victory over his "friendly enemy" Roger Young the Picktown mentor. Both are graduates of Laurelville High School and Wilmington College.

NBA Playoffs Seen Going Down To Wire

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The races for two National Basketball Association playoff berths apparently are going right down to the wire, but even Alfred Hitchcock would have trouble writing suspense into the Cleveland Cavaliers' script.

While the Detroit Pistons nipped the Atlanta Hawks 106-105 Sunday, while the New York Knicks held off Baltimore 110-104 with a late burst, while the Milwaukee Bucks were rallying to beat Boston 111-99... while all this was going on, the hapless Cavaliers are being demolished by Los Angeles in a 61-36 first half en route to a 107-90 shellacking.

In another contest, the Philadelphia 76ers turned back Cincinnati 131-121.

Detroit's hectic victory enabled the Pistons to pick up ground on both second-place Chicago and third-place Phoenix in the Midwest Division, but they still trail the Bulls by three games and the Suns by two.

With the Pistons trailing Atlanta 105-103, Bob Lanier's three-point play with 40 seconds left put them in front and Jimmy Walker wrapped it up with two free throws 30 seconds later. Lanier had 28 points and teammate Dave Bing 27 while Pete Maravich scored 30 and Lou Hudson 24 for the losers.

The Hawks remained one half game in front of Cincinnati in the Central Division when the 76ers whipped the Royals behind Billy Cunningham's 28 points and Wally Jones' 24, the same number posted by the losers' Tom Van Arsdale.

New York, leading Baltimore by only 102-101 with 2½ minutes left, got some breathing room on Cazzie Russell's free throw and Dave DeBusschere's long jumper. Walt Frazier paced the Knicks with 25 points and Willie Reed had 24. They scored 18 and 17, respectively, in the second half. The Bullets' Fred Carter had a career high 30.

The unkindest cut of all, however, for the crippled Bullets—Gus Johnson and Eddie Miles are sidelined—came at halftime when the team doctor examined starting forward Jack Marin and sent him home with the flu.

WINDOW AND STORM DOOR GLASS REPLACED

GORDON'S

Est. 1924 — 474-5631

A year ago the two teams met in first round tournament play with different results. In that 1970 tourney tilt, it was the Tigers who came out on the winning end of the score.

THREE Braves led by All-SVC center Mark Knece scored in double figures. Knece connected on six of ten shots from the field and converted all four of his opportunities at the foul line for 16 markers. He pulled down 11 rebounds.

Tim Justice, a sophomore starter, was on target for five field goals and four foul shots for 14 points. Alex Jones, the 6-foot-1 guard for the Braves, tossed in five shots from the field and added two charity tosses for 12 markers and also rebounded seven missed shots.

Jeff Young scored eight points, Doug Barnett came off the bench in spite of the fact he was weakened by a recent bout with the flu and scored six points and pulled down six big rebounds and Bill McKnight scored a two-pointer.

PICKERINGTON was led by Dave Good with 17 points, Paul Norris with 16 and Dale Estep with 13. Rounding out the scoring for Roger Young's cagers were Dave Belleau with eight and Ken Wyckoff with two.

Denver Rips Memphis For 118-111 Win

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Denver was losing the battle, but finally won the war after Larry Cannon went off.

The Rockets trailed Memphis 62-56 at the half, but got rolling behind Cannon's second-half scoring to pound the Pros 118-111 in the American Basketball Association Sunday night.

Cannon fired in 33 points and teammate Tom Workman shot 27 to pace Denver's comeback.

In other games, Pittsburgh beat Indiana 113-110, the Floridians ripped Virginia 136-127, Kentucky slammed Carolina 122-112 and Utah defeated Texas 25-23.

Texas topped Memphis 115-113, New York trimmed Denver 122-115 and Pittsburgh clouted Virginia 127-116 in Saturday night's ABA action.

After Cannon and Workman shot Denver into a comfortable second half lead, Memphis' surged back behind Steve Jones to cut the Rocket lead to 105-103 with 5:25 left in the game.

But Denver took advantage of three straight Memphis turnovers to roll to a 111-103 margin and the Pros never recovered. Jones scored 29 points for Memphis, which lost its seventh straight.

The Braves made 23 of 52 shots from the field, a 44.3 per cent average while Pickerington sank 20 of 62 shots, a 32 per cent average.

At the foul line Logan Elm made 12 of 17 shots while Pickerington converted 16 of 26 at the charity line. Logan Elm outrebounded the Tigers, 27-24, but had more turnovers, 12 compared to 10.

It was a close, exciting game throughout. Both teams used zone defenses primarily — Logan Elm a 2-3 alignment and Pickerington a 1-3-1.

Lima Teams, Individuals Lead Bowling

LIMA, Ohio (AP) — Lima bowlers prevailed in the first weekend of the 67th Annual Ohio State Bowling Association tournament, taking top spots in five of the seven categories.

Lima teams took the top three places in the handicap and actual divisions. Cira's tent Market topped the team handicap with 3,129, followed by Dept. 79, B.H., 3,126, and Yazel's Colonial Flowers, 3,118.

Yazel's lead the team actual with 2,972. Ebonite of Lima is second at 2,894 and Kerr Sporting Goods is third with 2,887.

In doubles handicap, Homer Thiesing - Les Dudgeon of Lima with 1,331 followed by Chester Russ - Elmer Ross of Dayton at 1,314 and Tom Potter - Lou Bougham of Bluffton with 1,313. In doubles actual, Thiesing-Dudgeon again lead with 1,257, followed by Russ-Ross with 1,254 and Bob Kerr-Dennis Roney of Lima at 1,250.

Singles handicap honors went to D. H. Brown of Athens, 725. Art Orchard, Lima, had 713 and John Sidenbender of Wapakoneta, 712. The singles actual standings have Orchard with 677, Charles Close of Killbuck with 675 and Kerr at 680.

Close leads the all-events actual with 1972, followed by Gene Woods of Lima at 1978 and Kerry with 1909.

The Braves jumped out to a quick lead and were on top 6-2 early in the first quarter. The score was tied at 10-10 and at the end of the period the Braves led 14-12.

Pickerington scored the first five points of the second quarter to move ahead, 17-14. The lead changed hands two more times in the period and just before halftime Pickerington moved out to a 30-22 lead — the largest margin during the entire tilt.

LE scored the last four points of the half and went to the dressing room on the short end of a 30-26 score. In the third quarter the Braves were able to tie the score at 33-33, at 35-35 and at 37-37.

After taking a 39-37 lead late in the third quarter, the Braves were never behind.

By the end of the third period, the Braves had moved ahead, 45-39.

With a minute and six seconds Logan Elm was ahead, 55-48, the biggest lead for the Braves.

Right after that Knece fouled out of the game. The referee ruled there was too much body contact when the big center attempted to block a shot by Good. And when Knece disagreed with the call, he was charged with a technical.

Good made all three charity attempts. Norris scored on the in bounds play after the technical and then Estep helped the Pickerington cause by scoring two and deadlocking the game at 55-55 after an LE turnover.

Nicklaus Wins PGA; Eyes 2nd Golfing Grand Slam

PALM BEACH GARDENS, Fla. (AP) — Nobody has ever won the PGA, U.S. Open, Masters and British Open in the same year.

Jack Nicklaus has it on his mind.

JACK NICKLAUS

"I've got one leg and I'm thinking about the Masters," he said. "And, that's a golf course I know I can play."

The svelte Golden Bear shot 73 Sunday for a seven-under-par 281 total to win the 53rd Professional Golfers Association Championship at the tough PGA National Golf Club.

"Normally I head for the Masters trying to get a first leg on the Big Four," said the 31-year-old fairways giant. "This time I've got the first leg."

The PGA, normally the last of the Big Four events in August, was moved to February for one time only.

The Masters comes up in April at Augusta, Ga., the U.S. Open is scheduled at Merion Country Club at Ardmore, Pa., in June and the British Open at Royal Birkdale at Southport, England, in July.

"I've only played one series at Merion, but it was a doozy," said Nicklaus. "I'm sure if I go over and work hard, I can play Royal Birkdale."

Merion, one of the nation's classic courses, was the site of Ben Hogan's victory in the 1951 U.S. Open. Bantam Ben shot a four-round total of 287.

Nicklaus played Merion as an amateur. His 72-hole aggregate was an astounding 268, 19 shots better than Hogan.

Hogan won the Masters, U.S. Open and British Open in 1953, then didn't enter the PGA. The latter was a match play event in those days and Hogan preferred medal play, so he stayed home. Arnold Palmer was the latest threat to score the Grand Slam in one year. The golfing idol from Pennsylvania took the Masters and U.S. Open and then lost in Britain to Australian Kel Nagel during a rain-delayed final round.

"All pro golfers try to set themselves apart from the rest," said Nicklaus. "The major championships do this. I've got 11 now and want to win more than anybody who ever lived."

Bobby Jones is the leader with 13. Nicklaus and Walter Hagen have 11 and Palmer, eight.

SPORTS Highlights

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Four unsigned members of the Cleveland Indians officially became holdouts today, but two of them indicated they were making progress in contract negotiations.

Third baseman Craig Nettles arrived here unexpectedly Sunday and said he would meet with Manager Alvin Dark prior to today's spring training drills. Outfielder Vada Pinson indicated he is near agreement on contract terms.

The other two—pitcher Sam McDowell and infielder Larry Brown—were no nearer an agreement.

RAFAELA, Argentina (AP) — Al Unser beat Lloyd Ruby in the 300-mile Indianapolis at Rafaela Auto Race and is off to a good start in defense of his U.S. Automobile Club driving title.

Unser, of Albuquerque, N.M., at the wheel of a Colt-Ford, beat Ruby, of Wichita Falls, Tex., in a Mongoose-Ford, by 30 seconds at an average speed of 167.14 miles per hour for the first section of 150 miles.

The second section, finished under lights as darkness fell, went to Unser at an average speed of 149.75 m.p.h., 21 seconds ahead of Ruby.

CINCINNATI (AP) — The 32nd annual exhibition baseball game between the Cincinnati Reds of the National League and the American League's Cleveland Indians will be held at Riverfront Stadium April 23.

The game, which has been held here since 1949, has contributed better than $500,000 to amateur baseball, the Reds office said.

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Cincinnati Bengals will host the Green Bay Packers Sept. 4 in a pre-season National Football League exhibition game at Riverfront Stadium.

The teams played a 10-10 tie game last season at Milwaukee in exhibition. They will meet in regular season play for the first time in 1971. The date of that contest has not been finalized, the Bengals said.

The Masters comes up in April at Augusta, Ga., the U.S. Open is scheduled at Merion Country Club at Ardmore, Pa., in June and the British Open at Royal Birkdale at Southport, England, in July.

"I've only played one series at Merion, but it was a doozy," said Nicklaus. "I'm sure if I go over and work hard, I can play Royal Birkdale."

Merion, one of the nation's classic courses, was the site of Ben Hogan's victory in the 1951 U.S. Open. Bantam Ben shot a four-round total of 287.

Nicklaus played Merion as an amateur. His 72-hole aggregate was an astounding 268, 19 shots better than Hogan.

Hogan won the Masters, U.S. Open and British Open in 1953, then didn't enter the PGA. The latter was a match play event in those days and Hogan preferred medal play, so he stayed home.

Arnold Palmer was the latest threat to score the Grand Slam in one year. The golfing idol from Pennsylvania took the Masters and U.S. Open and then lost in Britain to Australian Kel Nagel during a rain-delayed final round.

"All pro golfers try to set themselves apart from the rest," said Nicklaus. "The major championships do this. I've got 11 now and want to win more than anybody who ever lived."

Bobby Jones is the leader with 13. Nicklaus and Walter Hagen have 11 and Palmer, eight.

SPORTS Highlights

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Four unsigned members of the Cleveland Indians officially became holdouts today, but two of them indicated they were making progress in contract negotiations.

Third baseman Craig Nettles arrived here unexpectedly Sunday and said he would meet with Manager Alvin Dark prior to today's spring training drills. Outfielder Vada Pinson indicated he is near agreement on contract terms.

The other two—pitcher Sam McDowell and infielder Larry Brown—were no nearer an agreement.

RAFAELA, Argentina (AP) — Al Unser beat Lloyd Ruby in the 300-mile Indianapolis at Rafaela Auto Race and is off to a good start in defense of his U.S. Automobile Club driving title.

Unser, of Albuquerque, N.M., at the wheel of a Colt-Ford, beat Ruby, of Wichita Falls, Tex., in a Mongoose-Ford, by 30 seconds at an average speed of 167.148 miles per hour for the first section of 150 miles.

The second section, finished under lights as darkness fell, went to Unser at an average speed of 149.750 m.p.h., 21 seconds ahead of Ruby.

CINCINNATI (AP) — The 32nd annual exhibition baseball game between the Cincinnati Reds of the National League and the American League's Cleveland Indians will be held at Riverfront Stadium April 23.

The game, which has been held here since 1949, has contributed better than $300,000 to amateur baseball, the Reds office said.

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Cincinnati Bengals will host the Green Bay Packers Sept. 4 in a pre-season National Football League exhibition game at Riverfront Stadium.

The teams played a 10-10 tie game last season at Milwaukee in exhibition. They will meet in regular season play for the first time in 1971. The date of that contest has not been finalized, the Bengals said.

The setting of guard salaries, he said, is a legislative matter and outside the warden's domain. He added that working conditions at the penitentiary could be possible topics of discussion.

However, he said, a wage hike for the prison's 360 guards is among recommendations he has made to the Ohio Department of Personnel for its legislative package. He declined to say how great an increase he proposed.

The union's salary proposal has not been completed, Everett said, but it will be "rather expensive because they are so underpaid."

Wages for prison guards start at $2.89 an hour and rise to a maximum of $3.45.

A majority of the penitentiary guards staged a one-week strike earlier this year over wages and working conditions. At the time of the strike, guard spokesmen said they wanted an across-the-board $1-an-hour hike.

Guards voted last week to have the Teamsters represent them in bargaining. Everett said about 330, about 90 per cent of the prison force, have joined the union.

"We will be very firm with our demands," he said, "and we don't plan to pussyfoot."

"We know we have to be militant, but we will be fair."

Besides wages, Everett said, "A lot of inequities have to be worked out." He mentioned promotions, seniority and grievance procedures as areas of discussion.

At present, he does not foresee negotiations ending in another strike by guards. "I'm a firm believer agreements can be worked out across the table," he said.

The security guards withdrew from representation by State Employees Union Council 21 in 1970 and were not represented by a union in the recent penitentiary walkout.

Cleveland's School Crime Rate Eyed

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — A 16-year-old student leader at Cleveland John Hay High School told city officials Sunday that dope and prostitution rings flourish in the city's schools.

"We're learning how to get a prostitute and smoke dope before we're learning American and world history," said John P. Nolan, student council president at John Hay.

Speaking at the fourth annual police-community breakfast, Nolan said, "Any time you go to the john, you're afraid of someone robbing you with a gun in your back." The comment came as he discussed the murder last week of 15-year-old Kenneth Wagner, who was shot five times in the head in a room of Franklin D. Roosevelt Junior High School.

Mayor Carl B. Stokes said the most effective step in cutting the city's homicide rate is a gun control law, but that gun control legislation he has proposed still "languishes" in city council. "So I cannot take the responsibility for the homicide rate in Cleveland and neither can the police department," Stokes added.

Police Chief Lewis W. Coffey said that no increase in the size of the police force can stop the city's spiraling homicide rate. He said that the thinking of the people would have to change and he urged television to "stop glamorizing violence."

Cleveland's School Crime Rate Eyed

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — A 16-year-old student leader at Cleveland John Hay High School told city officials Sunday that dope and prostitution rings flourish in the city's schools.

"We're learning how to get a prostitute and smoke dope before we're learning American and world history," said John P. Nolan, student council president at John Hay.

Speaking at the fourth annual police-community breakfast, Nolan said, "Any time you go to the john, you're afraid of someone robbing you with a gun in your back." The comment came as he discussed the murder last week of 15-year-old Kenneth Wagner, who was shot five times in the head in a rest room of Franklin D. Roosevelt Junior High School.

"We will be very firm with our demands," he said, "and we don't plan to pussyfoot."

"We know we have to be militant, but we will be fair."

Besides wages, Everett said, "A lot of inequities have to be worked out." He mentioned promotions, seniority and grievance procedures as areas of discussion.

At present, he does not foresee negotiations ending in another strike by guards. "I'm a firm believer agreements can be worked out across the table," he said.

The security guards withdrew from representation by State Employees Union Council 21 in 1970 and were not represented by a union in the recent penitentiary walkout.

Canton Raid Nets Pills, 4 Arrests

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — Narcotics charges have been filed against four young men arrested in a raid by Stark County sheriff's deputies at a mobile home on Columbus Avenue just east of Canton.

Deputies said they confiscated about 2,000 pills which they described as amphetamines and hallucinogens in the Saturday night raid.

They identified those arrested as Danny Lee Dellinger, 22, of East Sparta; Mark R. Jivengood, 18, and Thomas D. Cutting, 18, both of Alliance, and John Littlestein, 23, of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Deputies said charges of sale of narcotics and possession of narcotics for sale were lodged against Dellinger, Jivengood and Cutting, who have been living in the mobile home, and that Littlestein was charged with possession of narcotics.

Hamilton Electorate Eyes Voting Age
